The Metropolitan Revenue Board have released the imported whies and two harrels of spirits taken from Seemulier's store, in Newst., week before last. One of the members of the Metropolitan Board is endeavoring to secure the repeal of the order of Commissioner Rollin against seizing whisky in bond. This decision was made on the ground that all liquor in bond had been virtually seized by the Government, for it was in a place of detention, and could not be taken therefrom till the tax was paid, according to law.

In addition to the facts which were published in The Thinuxs of Saturday touching the arrest of Wm. Spencer and Hannah Seymour for manufacturing and in The Thinexs of Saturday to defining the altering and intering counterfeit Treasury notes, we learn that when Col. Wood returned from New-York to Jersey City on Friday evening he had in his possession plates of the figures on the 5-20 bonds, plates of the forged coupons, and electro-gold plates for a counterfeit $1,000 interest-bearing note, which Col. Wood says is the finest piece of workmanship he ever saw. While the Colonel was exhibiting the plates at Taylor's Hotel, in Jersey City, a young woman, who proved to be the "Minnie" that "worked off" the forged notes, appeared at the door and inquired for Col. Wood. They went to Washington together on Saturday evening.

Sergeant Miller and Patrolman Carson made two successful descents upon gambling saloons on Saturday evening. Having allayed the suspicions of the door-keeper at No. 54 East Fourteenth-st., the officers took seats at the table, and at the preconcerted signal made a dash for the meney. In the struggle which succeeded the officers defended themselves with the butts of their pistols until assistance arrived, when James Russell, William Scott, and William Vermilyea were made prisoners; the proprietor, James Berins, and some others, having escaped through the windows. The gamblers, with their implements, consisting of a faro-table, 500 cheeks, a $100 note, sliver dealing, box, &c., were taken to the Mercer st. Police Station. Later in the evening the same officers visited Bernard Casentali's gambling-saloon, at No. 697 Broadway, and captured a $100 greenback and gambling implements, which, with Joseph King, Thomas Blakeley, and James Smith were cared for by Capt. THE CIVIL COURTS.

In the United States Circuit Court, on Saturday, the case of Elias Ross agt, the steamboat Neversink was before Judge Nelson. Mr. Ross sued to recover for supplies of coal furnished the Neversink, at New-Brunswick, at the request of the master of the Neversink, who had chartered that vessel to run between this port and New-Brunswick. The question was whether the supply was necessary for the use of the vessel. The Court below held that the proofs showed that the supply was necessary, and therefore a decree was entered in favor of libelant. This decree Judge Nelson now affirms. Other like cases were before the Court, with like result. In the case of Henry B. Goodyear et al. agt. Thomas G. Waite et al., in which an application had been made by plaintiffs for an injunction to restrain the defendants from making dental plates of hard rubber vithout paying a royalty to plaintiffs, and in which the motion for such injunction had been granted, a final decree was entered.

In the Supreme Court Circuit at Brooklyn, Mr. A. A. DeGraw sued J. H. Elmore to recover $6,000 paid him for 150 shares of stock in the Mahony Coal Mining Company, which he (the plaintiff) alleges to be worthless. In March, 1866, the defendant entered DeGraw's office, and represented that this coal mine was a paying concern: that the stock was worth 70 per cent, and that a man up

CRIMINAL COURTS.

The business at Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday was very light, only 40 malefactors coming to the bar to show cause why they should not be reprimanded, fined, imprisoned, or otherwise punished for the evil deeds done on Saturday. Judge Ledwith committed one man for petty larceny, one for grand larceny, two or three for assa ilt and battery, and a great many for making public nuisances of themselves in manner and form as prescribed by the enemy which some men put into their mouths to steal away their brains. Among the miserable wretches impounded for droukennes were four women. One of these was brought in from the street by her own husband while the Court was in session, so drunk that she could not waik, and just sober enough to ask to have her baby brought to her. At this Court there are generally from 100 to 150 law breakers brought to judgment every Sanday morning. The paucity of cases yesterday was the general topic of conversation, and the older officers of the Court all the morning bore the dolefally bewildered expression of countenance of men who have come forth from the cave of Trophonius by the wrong exit, and stand in doubt whether to abide where they are or to go back into the gloom and find another "entrance out."
